FRENCH VIEW OF MESSAGE

Official Quarters in Paris Gratified at Harding's Declaration

Washington, April 13.—The first move in the present Congress looking to disarmament came today with the introduction by Senator Berash, Republican, Idaho, authorizing the president to open negotiations with Great Britain and Japan looking to a reduction in future naval building by those countries and the United States. The resolutions are similar to those introduced by Senator Berash the last session.

Washington, April 13.—Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, introduced today his resolution to end the state of war with Germany. The measure is similar to one passed by the last Congress and vetoed by President Wilson.

The resolution which also would end the state of war with the Austrian government was referred to the foreign relations committee without discussion. It would provide that American rights under the treaty of Versailles should be reserved.

French Like Message.
Paris, April 12.—President Harding's message to Congress created a most favorable impression in official as well as other circles. Particularly favorable was the reception of the president's phrase in the message as recommending the ratification as the Treaty of Versailles detached from the covenant of the League of Nations and with reservations.

Cable extras of the address of President Harding arrived too late and were too brief to permit morning papers to comment on it editorially. The prominence given Mr. Harding's message, however, showed the importance attached to it in this city.

INSIST ON WHITE AWARD.
Washington, April 13.—It was indicated today at the state department that the American government was disposed to insist upon its original position that Panama settle its boundary dispute with Costa Rica on the basis of the White award despite the protests contained in Panama's reply received today to Secretary Hughes' note of last month.

Wagon Bridge Across Missouri is Urged

Pierre, S. D., April 12.—Another effort for the immediate linking of eastern and western South Dakota, by means of a permanent wagon bridge is being made by the Pierre Commercial club, according to the recent announcement of that organization.

The club has obtained engineers' figures showing the cost and feasibility of the Chicago and Northwestern railway company planking the railroad bridge between this city and Fort Pierre and adopting a system of tolls for vehicles and pedestrians.

The plan, which will be submitted to railroad officials within a few weeks, by a committee representing the club, call for the planking of the bridge by the company, the construction of toll gates at each end and the discontinuance of the ferry train which makes the two mile run between the cities on a two hour schedule during the day.

According to the engineers figures, this ferry train service is not a paying proposition to the railroad company, while the toll system would be capable of showing a profit. The two guards now stationed at each end of the bridge would be made the collectors of the toll.

The cities of Ft. Pierre and Pierre would be responsible for the grading of the approaches to the bridge under the plan.

If the plan is adopted it will provide the first permanent wagon bridge across the Missouri in this state. It is hoped to have the matter before the railroad officials in time so that if adopted, the necessary work may be completed before mid-summer.

ATTACK MRS. O'HARE.
Shreveport, La., April 13.—Resolutions declaring statements attributed to Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, editor of a socialist publication at Girard, Kan., in an address at the city hall here Wednesday night, to be unfounded and an insult to the American flag, nation and former service men, were adopted by Shreveport Post No. 11, American Legion at a meeting last night.

New York, April 13.—As the greatest mystery of 20 years, the strange disappearance of Dorothy Arnold, is duplicated by the sudden disappearance on Friday, April 1, of Mrs. Annette N. Rankine, social favorite and multimillionaire?

Opening Session of Yeoman Brotherhood

WILL BANQUET TONIGHT

Competitive Drills Will Proceed
Feast—Wyman Boosts
Bismarck

More than 200 delegates assembled this morning for the state conclave of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman. It is one of the best attended sessions that has been held.

Practically every important city and town in the state is represented.

The opening session was an unusually long one owing to the debate which arose as to M. J. Bredvold, state foreman, presiding.

A large group of the delegates protested, on the grounds that Mr. Bredvold, who formerly lived in Fargo, was barred by the by-laws because he was not now a resident of the state. The fight against Mr. Bredvold was led by the Jamestown delegation, leadership among those who upheld the foreman centered in the Walsh and Cass county delegations.

The invocation was given by the state chaplain, H. C. Collison. This was followed by a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Lillian Paulson.

The address of welcome which was to have been delivered by C. L. Young, president of the Bismarck Commercial club, was given by George N. Rankin, secretary. Mr. Young was out of the city.

J. B. Wyman of Grand Forks, responded. Next to Grand Forks, he said, Bismarck was the most beautiful and progressive city in the state.

Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of the Helena area of the Methodist Episcopal church was welcomed in Bismarck last night by a large number of Methodists and members of other churches. Bishop Burns, who has been making visits throughout his area which includes a large territory in the Northwest, was welcomed in Mandan during the day, and at a men's banquet at the Methodist church at 6:15 o'clock last evening and by the congregation later.

More than 100 men sat down at the banquet given in honor of the Bishop. Among the visitors present were Rev. H. Styles Harris of Mandan, district superintendent; Rev. W. R. Thatcher, pastor of the Methodist church in Mandan; Rev. Harley Zellar, of Ft. Rice, and Rev. William Schostall of McKenzie. Several Mandan laymen attended the banquet, which was served by ladies of the church.

Bishop Burns, in an after-dinner talk at the men's banquet, declared this was a man's age, and said that the world never needed religion so much as it does now, to help settle its biggest problems.

He declared that after Wall street government officials and union labor men had used every means to bring about peace and understanding in the industrial world, and had failed, they all are beginning to ask if it would not perhaps be the thing to do to apply the principle of the Christian religion.

TIME RIPE, HE SAYS.

"When the capitalist is crying out for religion, when the union labor man is crying out for it, when everything else has broken down why do we not go out and make the world safe for Christ?" he asked his auditors.

Urging his hearers to endeavor to make politics clean, Bishop Burns referred to woman suffrage and remarked that women, after striving for years to attain the right of the ballot had not made use of the opportunity offered.

A large congregation heard Bishop Burns preach in the evening. He left at midnight for Helena, Montana. His home, Bishop Spring of Chicago will be one of the principal speakers at the camp meeting.

Bishop Spring of Chicago will be one of the principal speakers at the camp meeting.

Washington, April 13.—President Harding told a delegation which called on him today to urge the release of Eugene V. Debs and all other prisoners convicted under the espionage act that he contemplated no action looking to general amnesty for such general prisoners until a state of peace had been declared.

TRIPLE STRIKE STARTS FRIDAY;
GOVERNMENT GRIPS WITH LABOR;
OTHER WORKERS MAY JOIN FIGHT

London Newspapers Declare Nation Faces Industrial Crisis in Situation Growing Out of Decision of Miners, Transport Workers and Railway Men to Tie Up the Country—4,000,000 to be Idle Under Strike Order—Government Declares it Will Support Efforts to Prevent Industrial Ruin.

London, April 13 (By the Associated Press).—Great Britain's "triple alliance of labor" will call its members from their posts at 10 o'clock Friday night, it was announced here this morning at 11 o'clock. This decision follows the inability of the National Miners Federation to reach an agreement with the mine owners and the government for the settlement of the miners' strike which began April 1.

It has been estimated that if the alliance should call a strike there would be nearly 4,000,000 persons idle in England as a result.

The decision to strike was reached unanimously by the transport workers and railway men, J. N. Thomas, general secretary of the railway men's union, said after this morning's meeting.

Many other unions have sent applications to join the strike and these are being considered, he said.

The Daily Mail declared today that the executive committee of the electrical workers union resolved last night to support the "tripple alliance." An electricians' strike will paralyze street traffic and public lighting.

Dwell on Seriousness
All London papers dwell on the serious injury dealt the country over the continued uncertainty over the industrial situation.

The London Times and Post pointed out it was not the actual matter of wages in dispute but the question of national control of the profits of industry which was at stake.

The Morning Post emphasized the alleged fact that "hidden and subversive forces were behind the whole movement" and declared "the miners' demands must be resisted at all cost."

"The situation," said the Daily Telegraph, "is so confused to permit of prediction and members of the triple alliance themselves probably have no clear idea as to what must be done. It is a desperate situation. All citizens should prepare for the worse."

Labor's View

The Daily Herald, organ of labor, said the government had bargained and bolted the door upon all hope of an honorable settlement," and fiercely attacked Mr. Lloyd George for "tricking the miners into delay and definitely casting his lot with the bosses."

The newspapers called on the "tripple alliance" to stand pat.

Government Statement

The government today issued the following statement bearing on the labor situation:

"In the event of the threatened extension of the stoppage of work the government wish to make it clear that they will use the fullest powers of the state to protect the workers who remain at work in any service essential to the life of the community.

"In any settlement which may be reached the government will give their support assuring that the position of such workers shall not be prejudiced as compared with their positions before the stoppage."

RELEASE FOR DEBS, OTHERS
AWAITS PEACE

Washington, April 13.—President Harding told a delegation which called on him today to urge the release of Eugene V. Debs and all other prisoners convicted under the espionage act that he contemplated no action looking to general amnesty for such general prisoners until a state of peace had been declared.

FARMERS WANT STORE COMPANY TO BE CLOSED

Declarations Made at Minot
Hearing on Consumers
Stores

FARMERS WIN VICTORY

MINOT, April 12.—Charges that an effort had been made to load upon farmers who had furnished the Consumers United Stores company with notes or cash, the liabilities of the organization while others were permitted to "get out from under," were made before the completion of the hearing before Judge Moellering when C. W. Reichert of Carrington was named receiver of the stores.

Representatives of groups of farmers who opposed the plan to have W. G. Johnson appointed receiver of the stores company feel that they had won a victory. A telegram was received by Judge Moellering from J. W. Brinton in which he opposed the appointment of Johnson "or anyone who could be dominated by Townley or Lenke."

Ask Full Report

An intimation that stores had been turned over to farmers who had furnished the company with accommodation notes or cash a few days before the receivership proceedings were begun permitting some of those farmers who have been the backbone of the Nonpartisan League to get out from under, developed when Halvor L. Halverson of Minot, representing the state bank of Oriska, a creditor, asked the court if the turning over of the stores to farmers would not reduce the assets of the company.

C. P. Peterson of Cando wanted to know if the receivership proceedings would in any way affect the Bisbee store, which was turned over to him and other Towner county farmers a few days before the receivership petition was filed.

Attorney Goss advised the court that Johnson would make a full report of his management of the company while temporary receiver, and such matters as discussed by Halverson and Peterson would be taken care of by arrangements "which cannot be discussed here."

Peterson and 18 other Towner county farmers were given the Bisbee store in payment of $7,000 advanced to the company. Peterson endorsed the other 13 farmers' notes and stands good for the entire amount if the other notes are not paid, he said. An inventory of the Bisbee store revealed its value to be approximately $3,000, Peterson said, but he expects the store can be operated successfully and will pay the entire $7,000.

Contributed $1,000,000

More than 10,000 farmers contributed $100 each or an amount aggregating more than $1,000,000 when the company was organized. The farmers are forgetting about that and letting it go in the carrying out of the policy of turning in stores over to farmers to be operated as co-operative enterprises, H. G. Link of Larimore stated after the hearing.

The store at Larimore was turned over to the farmers a few days before the receivership petitions were filed. It seems apparent from the attitude of the farmers that the affairs of the stores company are to be wound up as quickly as possible. R. W. Frazier of Crosby, who was one of the leading figures on the farmers' side of the controversy, stated after the hearing that the determined fight made by the farmers in this instance was an indication that "we farmers are going to run our own enterprises in the future."

Reichert announced today that E. R. Sinker has been retained as attorney for the receiver.

Want It Wound Up

Matt Mulholland of Hurdfield enlarged on Atty. Lovell's request for a competent man by assuring the court that a man should be efficient yet extend the liquidation of the company over a period of five years.

"We farmers want this company's affairs wound up as quickly as possible and with as little expense as possible," Mulholland declared.

YEAR BOOK IS WORK OF ART

The year book which the B. F. Goodrich Company of Akron, Ohio, have issued to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the company is a remarkable production combining the best in the arts of the painter, writer and printer.

The story of the book deals in an interesting manner with the romantic development of the rubber industry and the origin and growth of the Goodrich Company. It is written in simple and direct literary style by Wilbur D. Nesbit.

The color reproductions of the symbolic paintings by W. T. Benda represent the high mark in the transplanting of works of art to the printed sheet.

SWORD DUELING POPULAR IN GERMANY SCHOOLS FOR 500 YEARS

Surgeons Stand By to Sew Up Wounds After Each Round Says One Who Describes Practice.

HEIDELBERG, Germany, April 12.—Sword duelling in the University of Heidelberg University is as popular and as common today as it was more than 500 years ago, when this oldest German schools was founded. Virtually every student who has passed the first year wears a sword scar on the left side of his chin or the left cheek, or a bandaged head which advertises that the scar is in the making.

Duels do not always arise from anger or quarrels, but out of the necessity of providing the student with the diploma of sword prowess, or to give him sword practice which affords the student great delight. They are sometimes arranged, like a boxing bout, by fraternities which have developed certain differences of opinion. Five round duels are popular.

"Surgeons stand by to sew up the wounds after each round, which usually last a minute," said a Heidelberg man, who wore a deep scar on his chin. "If neither student is badly damaged, the fight will go the full number of rounds decided upon, after which the stitches the surgeons have taken will be counted and the man with the fewest stitches will be declared the winner."

"Should at any time during the en-counter's combatant dodge a sword stroke, his opponent is immediately declared winner. That is the infallible thing in the students' duelling code—to dodge a stroke."

Except infrequent combats between older students, when heavy swords are used, duelling in Heidelberg is not dangerous. The heads and necks of the fighters, and the abdomen, are protected by leather guards.

Some of the favorite duelling places are ancient cafes and beer rooms, the floors of which are always covered with sand, the walls lined with huge mugs and hung with engravings, old pictures and trophies of the fight. These places are sacred to students and it would be a serious offence against custom of half a thousand years for a stranger to wander in and sit down in some storied chair.

The university is still a law unto itself, and the civil authorities of the town of Heidelberg never, under any pretext, interfere in student affairs. Punishment is administered to refractory students by university authorities. The university "jail" is now the top story of the building. It is a custom for the student confined in one of these cells to leave his name and the date of his imprisonment written on the walls.

ROUGED LIPS LAID AT DOOR OF EDUCATORS

Vocational Cranks Breaking Up the Home, Declares Bishop Charles Wesley Burns

SHOULD TEACH THINKING

Then Boys and Girls Will Know How to do, Maintains Methodist Official

Rouged Lips penched eve brows short skirts and broken homes were laid at the door of vocational cranks in education yesterday afternoon by Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of the Methodist Episcopal church in his address at the Palace theater.

This stress upon things in education he declared was typical of the age which lacks "intellectual and puts emphasis upon things rather than upon thought and heart."

Compliments Mandan.

In opening his address he complimented the members of the Methodist church and the people of Mandan for their enthusiasm, and courage and spoke glowingly of the prospects of the Denison Hospital.

"If my appendix had not been removed last fall," he said, "I would like to have remained there for an operation. The beautiful site, the magnificent view, the fine nurses and the splendid surgery all appealed to me."

Launching into the theme of his address, he declared that every age has its own distinctive note. In the period before the Civil war was the epoch of intellectual characteristics—deep thinking. In those days the people sat

"The purpose of the school is to teach the boy or girl to think if they can think they will know how to do. When thought leaves we go back to anarchy to mob rule."

This is true both of society and religion. There is such a thing as going too fast. The great danger is substituting things for consecration.

He then drew a picture of the impregnable Hindenburg line equipped with the best fighting machines the world could produce. From the standpoint of things it was unbreakable. But the untrained boys from the prairies of the United States from the south and from the north poorly equipped with machinery but full of the spirit of the cause for which they were fighting went over that unbendable Hindenburg line and the war was won. All of the military entanglements in the world could not stop these men of heart.

"The same fire which burned in them will take hold of this old world and make it a fit dwelling place to the Sons of God."

Bishop Burns was typified in the salvation. "How do you do?" It is a practical utilitarian age.

Mob Spirit Rules.

"This is the age of the man who doesn't know what he thinks."

"There is no fine adjustment between the brain workers and the brain workers, between the capitalist and the worker. In England one of the greatest industrial crises of all time is about to commence."

The split of the age continued. Bishop Burns was typified in the salvation. "How do you do?" It is a practical utilitarian age.

Schools are Work Benches.

The teachers of high schools and colleges are vying with each other in an attempt to turn their schools into sewing rooms and work benches. We have none of that wonderful atmosphere which characterized the little "old school house."

He then told how he attended the graduation exercises of an institutional high school, giving a graphic word picture of the 500 girls with dresses which fell from the shoulder part way down, rouged lips and their "Greek Glare" when they marched.

When he was young on the farm he said they had ducks, geese, a wounded rooster and a horse with a sprung hump. That "Greek Glare," he said reminds him of all of them.

There weren't any cultural subjects taught in that school. And look at the graduates marvelously rouged marvellously painted, everyone of them.

Breaking Up Homes.

"It is these vocational cranks who are breaking up the home. The great peril of both educational and business is placing the emphasis on things in life."

METHODISTS TO BUILD CHURCH

Work will commence at once on the $40,000 new Methodist Episcopal church. It will be built in the library style, with high basement which will

RIDE ON SUNBEAM EXPRESS

Journey That Would Be Remarkable for Speed and for Wonders Seen Along the Way.

Emile Belot, the French astronomer, suggests that, if one were able to straddle a light ray (which travels 180,000 miles a second) and thus voyage through space, observations along the route would be exceedingly interesting.

It would take only a little more than a second to reach the moon and in 4 minutes and 20 seconds one would arrive at the planet Mars. One would get as far as Jupiter in 35 minutes, to Saturn in 70 minutes, to Uranus in 2½ hours and to Neptune in 4 hours.

On the way one would come across a great many comets without tails—nebulos bodies of spherical shape which are rarely seen from the earth.

It would take two years to get outside the sphere of the sun's attraction and by that time our orb of day would look like nothing more important than a big star.

The star closest to us, Alpha Centauri, would meanwhile be zooming up and the way far through space might expect to arrive there in a little more than four years. By this time he would have journeyed 24,000,000,000 miles.

Unnecessary Courtesy.

American parents often deplore the abruptness of their children's speech, but few American children would venture to address their parents in the incisive language sometimes used in the Gladstone family, as indicated in a recent book by Mary Drew, Mr. Gladstone's daughter. It bored Mr. Gladstone she says, to hear people apologetically differ—"My dearest love, I really think you are wrong," etc. "He thought it more to the point to be short and sharp—"A lie." It is impossible to forget Lord Morley's face," adds Mrs. Drew, "when he first heard one of us say to Mr. Gladstone, 'A lie.'" This freedom of expression half started and shocked guests at Hawarden, Mr. Gladstone's daughter observes, but it broke the seriousness of discussion and "put everyone in good humor." ## NORTH DAKOTA'S YOUNG ARTISTS TO HAVE CHANCE

The North Dakota Federation of Musical Clubs will hold its first Young Artists' Contest at Grand Forks Friday, April 15. There will be contestants in four classes as follows: Male voice, female voice, piano and violin. Contestants in the voice department must be between the ages of 20 and 30 years; contestants in the violin and piano department, between the ages of 18 and 20 years.

The judges will be Dr. R. Herbert of Minneapolis, Prof. Cummings of New England Conservatory in Boston, and Dr. Frank Shaw, head of the music department at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

The winners will receive cash prizes of $25 each donated by Miss Bergliot Caspary, of Bismarck; the Stone Piano company, of Fargo; the Popper Piano company, of Grand Forks, and the Boy Scouts band, of Devils Lake.

Winners of the state contest will compete April 16 with the winners of South Dakota, Montana and Minnesota for the district prize of $50 contributed by Mrs. Emma G. Wheeler, national chairman of this district.

The successful competitors in the district contest will participate in the national contest at the twelfth biennial convention, national festival, to be held at the Tri-Cities, Davenport, Iowa; Rock Island, and Moline, Illinois, June 8 to June 15.

The National Federation of Musical Clubs, comprising an aggregate membership of over 200,000 concertgoers is backing one of the greatest movements in the world of American Art that of gathering together American trained artists and giving them an equal opportunity for concert appearances with the foreign-trained artists. American artists even though foreign taught and accepted abroad, have a struggle with American managers and American club women to get a fair showing with the foregin artist.

With the new national consciousness comes the awakening of a duty which America owes to its own talented American citizen artists. Without concert appearances, they cannot become great performers. Italy, France and Germany are full of opera houses and municipal concert halls where native talent is given opportunity for public performances.

With these conditions as a motive the National Federation of Musical Clubs inaugurated State-District and National Contests to discover the best American trained artists of the whole country and to give them a chance to measure their worth with artists of other countries and giving to the successful contestants a concert tour.

WOULD YOU BE "DIFFERENT?" MADAME LOY SHOWS HOW

By Newspaper Enterprise.
NEW YORK, April 12.—Styles for women generally may be turning toward the simple and severe, but if you prefer something more striking—

Well, Madame Minna Loy is keeping busy these days creating for several houses here frocks and hats that should satisfy the most ambitious of those who seek to be different.

Here is the design for a dress that Madam calls "a background for stockings."

It is of dove-gray taffeta—that is, the skirt from behind seems to be all that could be expected of it. The bodice and the underlining are of scarlet chiffon with series of dots and stitching in a cherry-colored twist. A panel at the side carries out the scheme in cherry-colored beads which run over the shoulder to the extreme right back. For additional description, see the sketch!

And the hat!

The "Cane" is a rimless, crownless innovation. Oiled silk in light green with an underfacing of midnight blue pi-striped velvet. Tabs of this velvet are placed at intervals on the sunny side and ribbons of lace lace in and out over this canoe-like form.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

(Established 1873)

HARDING'S FIRST MESSAGE

President Harding, in his first message to Congress, told the story of the failure of the League of Nations when he said: "Manly is the highest principle of our Nation's life, but it is not the only principle of peace and making the enduring agency of the victors in war."

The American mind will not believe that Woodrow Wilson intended that his idealistic creation should be perverted in purpose. Doubtless Mr. Wilson, as his former secretary of state, Mr. Lansing, has said, underestimated the strength of the old world diplomacy. Whatever his intentions may have been, a covenant was drawn which could not claim the sympathy and support of the entire people of the world.

President Harding points a new path. He would settle the problems of the World War and then let the nations of the world associate themselves to solve the new problems of the world.

There was no lack of definiteness in the President's statement on the League of Nations. There is no doubt as to the desires of the people of the country, expressed in the "solemn referendum" of last fall.

While the nations associated with America in the war may feel pangs over the President's rejection of the league, there is given to them in his statements on the question of a separate peace with the Central Powers, assurance that the United States does not intend to desert her comrades in war and a warning that the United States shall not sit idly by while the problems of the war are to be solved.

A "declaratory resolution" by congress to end the "technical state of war against the Central Powers of Europe" with necessary qualifications to safeguard American rights was urged upon Congress by the President. He would strike from the country the shackles imposed upon trade by the state of war and yet give no comfort to the Central Powers nor support in their efforts to evade the terms of the peace treaty.

North Dakota should especially welcome the attitude of the President toward the emergency tariff and his sympathetic utterances and assurance for the agricultural states of the nation.

President Harding struck a note not heard in several years in his address to Congress. He laid before Congress pressing foreign and domestic problems of the day, but he did not attempt to lay down a narrow path for Congress to follow. Instead, he left the way clear for independent, thoughtful action by the men elected by the nation to make the laws.

HELPING THE BOYS

The International Rotary clubs in two of the larger cities of the country have launched a boys' week campaign. Next year they hope to make it a nation-wide affair. Already the Rotary clubs, of which the Bismarck club is a conspicuous example, are undertaking the work of making better citizens by directing the activities of boys in proper paths. Why should a week be set aside during the year to be known as Boys' Week? The answer is given in this Rotarian message:

"ARE WE MAKING CRIMINALS OF OUR BOYS?" the correct answer seems to be, "Yes, we are." A recent Grand Jury in its final report made the startling statement that of all the delinquent and criminal cases brought before it, 75 per cent were JUVENILE—or under 21 years of age. In short, they were BOYS.

Far too many of our boys are going to the bad and the fault is, very often NOT THE BOYS but that of the parents and others who are responsible for them.

What do you know about your boys; your sons and brothers and your nephews? Where are they AT THIS MOMENT? What are they doing RIGHT NOW? How much real attention do YOU give them? How much interest do YOU take in them and their interests?

The most priceless asset of your community is ITS BOYS. We save the Nation when we save the boys. What shall it profit Bismarck if it gains the whole world and LOSE ITS OWN BOYS?

The Boys of TODAY are the Citizens of TOMORROW. What kind of men are we making? And remember this, that what our boys are to be, THEY ARE NOW BECOMING.

An investment of your time and interest and care and sympathy in BOYS is a high-class, farsighted investment in the greatest undeveloped resource in the world.

There are probably ten million boys in the U. S. and Canada alone and as many more in the other great countries touched by Rotary. If we challenge them to high ideals and help them to them, them out, the world will be safe for business, for DEMOCRACY and for YOU and me.

Continue to neglect the BOY—as too many have been doing—and we shall have to pay the price—the price of making criminals.

Every boy who comes to maturity has cost the State, that is, you and me, about one thousand dollars. When a boy goes wrong we not only lose our thousand dollars but we have to spend another thousand or two to protect ourselves from him. DOES IT PAY TO NEGLECT THE BOY?

The BOY has need for your sympathetic understanding and help. Try to understand the BOY. Try to see things from HIS VIEWPOINT. Give him your sympathy and your friendship—and we will make fewer criminals but more good men. Take a hand in "BOYS' WEEK" and "BE HIS PAL."

WHERE TO SEND HIM

Albert Smith, 19 years old, son of wealthy parents, has been sentenced to spend not less than 42 years nor more than 85 years in the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The boy pleaded guilty to 13 charges of arson.

There was, under the existing laws of Pennsylvania, nothing else to do than to exile the boy to a prison cell for the minimum term. He will be an old man of 61 when he comes out.

Surely there must be something mentally at odds in the head of a boy like that who becomes a "firebug" as the prosecution termed him. It isn't at all likely that confinement in prison will straighten out that brain twist in the youth's head. It may be that nothing could be done to reshape, or retrain, his brain. But, society doesn't seem to concern itself much with what can be done, other than removing the abnormal brain from the highways society travels.

At some future day society may concern itself fully as much about the "curing" of ill minds as it now does of fill bodies. Probably judges in Pennsylvania, then, let us hope, will sentence boys like Albert to brain-training schools rather than to penitentiaries.

THE VANISHING MYSTERY

Seems as if nearly everybody that made a big money clean-up out of the war has lost or is losing it. The way in which war fortunes are slipping away is strangely similar to the wallet with a string attached, jerked away by a mischievous boy just as we reach down to pick it up.

A leather company's annual statement shows that its 1920 deficit wiped out profits accumulated in the last seven years. So with many other corporations. Depression is eating up their wealth.

Likewise, individuals. A man is pointed out on the street: "He's nearly busted. Said he made a big stake during the war. It's gone now."

Where are the war profits gone to? Who has hem?

Who will be the eventual holder when deflation and readjustment have run their course?

Some business men say that the government, through taxes, gradually will get back the floating war profits. But the government will spend the money to retire its debts.

Barring the great war fortunes that have been salted securely, most of the war profits in the long run may filter back to the public from which they came.

It's a long cycle and it may take decades.

"Shirtsleeves to shirtsleeves in three generations."

AFTER MAN—WHAT?

The man of the future will be 11 feet tall, says Levi S. Gardner, Detroit scientist, who fathered the electric gun and ball-bearing typewriter. He has a peculiar theory:

We spend so much of our time sitting down and riding in motor cars and auto, that the growth of our legs is being stunted. Meantime, the human spine is growing longer, says Gardner. He believes that, unless man exercises more, the time will come when his body will be so huge that his puny legs will be unable to sustain him.

"Man will grow so large," says Gardner, "that he will literally be crowded off the earth. That, however, will be millions of years hence."

This theory has considerable scientific backing. Mammoths, dinosaurs and other prehistoric beasts got so big that they blundered into swamps and couldn't get out. Now and then we dig up their fossils.

Nature experimented with a long chain of animals, each of which in turn ruled the earth. Then came man. He has about finished the job by hunting and destroying wild life, or domesticating it as in the case of the cow, horse and pig.

Will man, in turn, disappear from the earth?

Scientists say it is not unlikely that eventually man may be hard pressed for existence by disease germs. Or the world, roving on through space, may enter a field of poison gas that will kill off all forms of life. That man, A. Edison has advanced the theory that what we call Spanish influenza may be due to the earth passing through such a field of gaseous poison.

You never know how beautiful this country is until you look at pictures in a railway time-table.

A lot of us probably thought Rene Viviani was the latest Parisian dancer arriving on a vaudeville expedition.

If you envy the Hardings, just think of the mud that's tracked into their White House by the flood of sight-seers.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

BY ALLMAN

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

"I'll go long," said Mr. Seal.

"What's the matter?" asked Flippy-Flap, when Mrs. Seal took her bonnet. "Silky," said she, "you may stay if you wish, but I'm going to see the world." Mr. Seal saw that the game was up and hunted up his hat, too. "I'll go long," said he. "I suppose I can put off my home-making till some other time."

And he did.

Foley's Honey and Tar

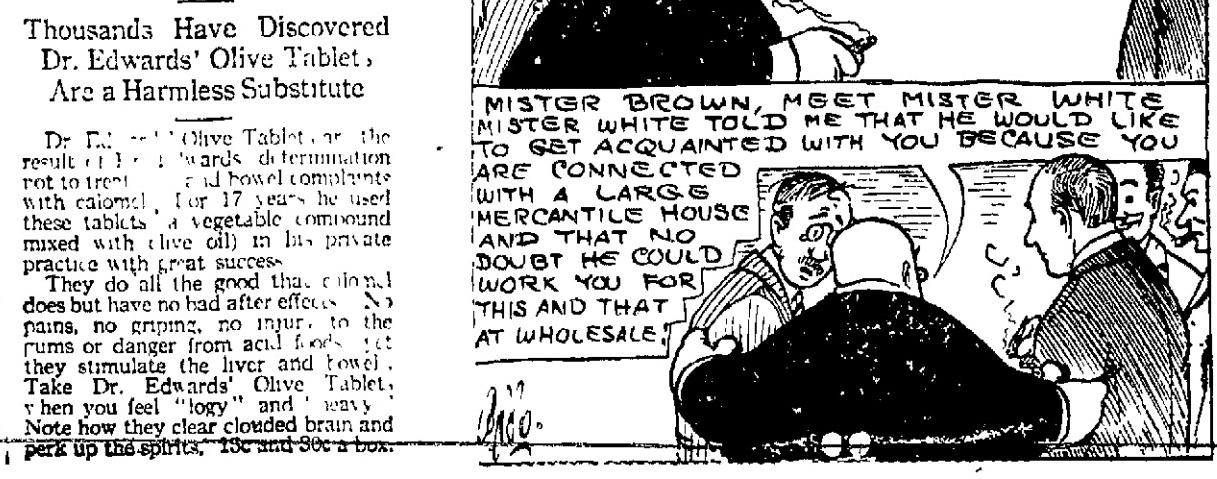

COMPOUND

CLEAR THE THROAT of phlegm and mucus, stops tickling, opens the air passages for easier breathing and cools the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing medicine.

Grateful Father Tells What It Did

W. E. Curry, 139 Union St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have a little girl 6 years old who has a good deal of trouble with colds. I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound giving it to her to drink to great relief. It gives instant relief for her. My wife and I use it whenever bothered with a bad cold or cough, and I will say that it is the best remedy for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble or cold that I ever saw."

Parents who use Foley's Honey and Tar know it is safe and no harm will come even if an overdose should be given by accident. It tastes good and children like it. It won't upset the delicate stomachs of young children, delicate persons or elderly people.

1921 BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

MAJORS START SEASON WITH MANY NEW MEN

Several Clubs of Uncertain Strength Until the Rookies Display Worth

MINORS ALSO BEGIN PLAY

The season is on. Sixteen major league teams, fortified with recruits to strengthen their weak points, crossed bats in the opening of the 1921 National and American League pennant fights today.

The eight cities that drew opening day dates were:

National League.

Boston—Braves vs Brooklyn

Philadelphia — Phillies vs. New York

Cincinnati—Reds vs. Pittsburgh

Chicago—Cubs vs. St. Louis

American League:

New York—Yankees vs. Philadelphia

Washington—Senators vs. Boston

Detroit—Tigers vs. Chicago

S. Louis—Browns vs. Cleveland

The visiting club will be in their own parks within the week.

Ban gambling.

Big league baseball opens this year under conditions unlike any within the last several years. The Chicago White Sox baseball scandal cast a shadow over organized baseball, which the leaders have been endeavoring to dispell. The selection of Federal Judge Landis as the supreme arbiter at baseball and the announcement of determined efforts to end gambling in baseball are part of the fight of major league owners to "live down" the Chicago team scandal.

Picks Giants to Win.

Several of the big league teams contain some youngsters of great promise, and with changes in managers baseball writers differ greatly as to forecasts of the way the teams will play. Here is how one sport writer does it out:

The American Association and many other minor leagues also got into action today.

PRISON'S TEAM TO PLAY BALL NEXT SUNDAY

Bismarck People Invited to Attend—Team Not to Go Out of Walls This Year

Bismarck people are invited to attend a baseball game at the state penitentiary Sunday afternoon.

Beecher Stair, deputy warden, announced today that the prison team would play a Bismarck team which would include Alex Harper, Al Anderson, "Christy" Christensen and other Bismarck players of ability.

The prison team will not be allowed to go beyond the prison walls this year. The prison team's season ended last fall at Hebron when two convicts took advantage of the situation and escaped. Some expense will be involved in getting teams from outside to come to the prison to play this year, and prison officials urge a full attendance at the local games to help matters along.

The prison team has been practicing and is developing some new players of much ability.

MC CARTY CASE TO HIGH COURT

Belfield, N. D., April 13.—Appeal in the case of C. A. McCarty of Belfield, who was convicted of grand larceny in June, 1920, and sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary, was argued last week before the state supreme court. McCarty, who was convicted in district court at Mandan of stealing five calves from a neighbor, later applied for a pardon which was denied, and the appeal to the supreme court followed.

FINWALL TALKS AT VALLEY CITY

Valley City, N. D., April 13.—Rev. C. W. Finwall of Bismarck captivated the young people at the Baptist church Monday evening, when he spoke upon the subject: "When to say 'No' and when to say 'Yes'." A large audience was present. This morning Rev. Finwall went to Jamestown, but will return to Valley City Thursday evening to speak at the Baptist church at eight o'clock. He will also speak next Friday evening, as well as next Sunday evening. Pastor-at-Large Finwall is at this time visiting Valley City to collect the "honor pledges" as he calls the pledges taken a year ago to meet the after-war world needs physically, educationally, morally and spiritually at home and abroad. Before leaving Valley City today he said: "About eighty persons in Valley City and vicinity pledged a comparatively large amount a year ago to meet crying world needs. The local director of C. W.'s drive for world reconstruction said the Baptists of Valley City is concerned, reported to me yesterday that only four out of eighty will persons not fulfill their pledges, and they live all around away from Valley City. Some have paid their pledges in full and all remaining will meet their pledges, though to some it means financial giving."

CHAMPION FLOUR MAKER OF WORLD,

46 YEARS IN SERVICE, RETIRES

John Kraft was Intimately Associated with the Development of Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 13.—Ranking as the champion flour maker of the world, John Kraft, who retired March 1st, after continuous service for 46 years, holds the unique record of making enough flour to feed the entire population of the United States and its possessions for a period of one year. Because of impaired vision, Mr. Kraft, who is 69 years old, terminated his connection with a local flour company after establishing a record which milling engineers believe will stand for many years.

Engineers at the plant estimate that during his 46 years of active service, Mr. Kraft made 138,000,000 barrels of flour. According to the veteran miller, an average normal person consumes about one barrel of flour a year of its life. Therefore could feed the population of the United States and its possessions which is approximately 115,000,000 and at the end of the year have a large surplus.

Expressed by milling engineers, the stupendous amount of flour milled under Kraft's eyes would if placed in barrels end to end, extend around the world three times would cover every square foot of the site of Minneapolis with flour six inches deep, and if loaded for shipment, would require 160,000 cars or 15,000 average trains.

Mr. Kraft has been a head miller for 38 years and during this time has had three mills under his supervision.

Born in Schlotzau, Germany, January 12, 1852, he came to this country when 20 years of age. It was not until he had resided here three years that he obtained employment in the mills.

Beginning at the bottom as a sweep purifying methods, and the installation of dust collectors. Also, the former head miller has watched the mighty growth of the village to which he came in 1872 to a large city known throughout the world for its flour mills.

12,000 AFFECTED BY WAGE CUTS

New York, April 13.—A 20 per cent reduction in salaries for all officials and 30 to 40 per cent for other employees, totalling about 12,000, effective June 1, was announced by the American Smelting and Refining company.

Titanium extracted from iron ore may be developed into a substitute for white lead.
